Stanley Cup to be Displayed at San José City Hall Rotunda

San José, CA—As a result of advocacy by the San José Sports Authority, the 2019 NHL All-Star Game will be played at SAP Center in San José on Saturday, January 26 @5 p.m. PST.

“The San José Sports Authority are extremely thankful to the National Hockey League for selecting San José to host the 2019 NHL All-Star game, home of the best fans in the league. Sharks fans have had the opportunity to be a part of the 2015 NHL Stadium Series, the 2016 Stanley Cup Finals and now the NHL All-Star Game!” states John Poch, Executive Director of the San José Sports Authority.

“The hard work that the San José Sports Authority does on behalf of our city will be on full display right alongside the Stanley Cup,” says Councilmember and Sports Authority Board Member Dev Davis.

In advance of the 2019 Honda NHL All-Star Weekend coming to SAP Center, NHL Executives will present the Stanley Cup® for display to Vice Mayor Chappie Jones and members of the San José City Council during a press conference on Tuesday, January 22nd @ 11:30 a.m. All press are invited to attend this ceremony.

“We’re excited to have the opportunity for the residents of San José and hockey fans in the Bay Area to experience one of the most storied and sought after trophies in all of sports,” states Vice Mayor Chappie Jones.

After the press conference a special public appearance by the Stanley Cup® will take place at the Rotunda at San José City Hall on Tues., Jan. 22 from Noon- 4 p.m. The event is FREE to fans of all ages.
